FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DSC LAUNCHES NEW WEB SITE
ENHANCEMENTS TO THE SITE WILL ALLOW FOR IMPROVED VISIBILITY

RESERVE, LA (March 31, 2009) – Dredging Supply Company, Inc. (DSC) is pleased to announce the release of their new web site. The site has been redesigned using new web technology that ensures the site will appear the same to viewers using multiple browsers and various screen sizes. This is an especially important development for DSC as their customers span the globe, using a wide variety of internet connections and browsing software. Some key features considered in the new design were simplified navigation, improved search engine visibility, and added relevant information for existing and potential customers. The new site will receive regular updates regarding industry news and events, serving as an online marketplace for the dredging industry. Furthermore, improvements to the site's overall design keep DSC at the forefront of technology – just as the products they manufacture. The addition of an online parts catalog and shopping capability are already being discussed as future enhancements. Check out the new site at www.dscdredge.com.
